Dot-to-dot

You may not want to encourage your offspring to draw on the walls, but if you're keen to develop any artistic tendencies, the Join the Dots wallpaper is a fun way to go. Just paste the paper to the wall in the usual way, then let your little ones loose with pens and pencils to create their own dotty masterpieces. It won't be long before you pick up a pencil.

Join the Dots wallpaper £50 per roll, coxandcox.co.uk

To Infinity...

Buzz, Woody, Mr Potatohead and the Toy Story gang are back with a new adventure. Owner Andy, is heading off to college, which means his faithful childhood friends are being given away to a children's nursery. How will they escape their new toddler playmates? Odeon Cinema, TW from Friday 23 July.

Rock-a-by-baby

Tired of the usual pastel-shades of baby wear? Bon Jovi drummer Tico Torres was, so he's developed an edgy range of rock-inspired clothing for tots, all in black, white or grey. The collection includes baby grows, vests and bottles, all with more than a hint of the rock star. Rock Star Baby Deluxe Starter Set £82, rockstarbaby.com

WHAT YOUR LITTLE DARLINGS SHOULD BE WEARING, SEEING AND DOING THIS MONTH

WORDS: MELISSA WOODLAND

Keep out!

Every child loves a space to call their own. Whether it's a home-made den at the end of the garden or a precariously balanced tree house, it's somewhere for them to play, relax and see their friends, and is usually out of bounds to grown-ups. With the Summer holidays upon us, now is the time to invest in something a little more long-lasting and commission a playhouse to fit your outside space. From fortresses to weatherboard residences, pretty much any design is possible - you can even incorporate climbing frames, swings, slides and storage.

Playhouses from £2,000 theplayhousecompany.co.uk

Ahoy there

The Summer's fashion musts have reached miniature proportions. The nautical trend is everywhere, with shrunk-down Breton stripes and anchor detailing. Sonia Rykiel Enfant bejeweled jersey dress is a playful and practical take on the look, with pink stripes replacing the traditional navy and sparkling embellishments ensuring it's fit for your princess. Sonia Rykiel Jewelled Anchor Jersey Dress, £95.95, The Children Salon, High Street, TW.
